

Week Beginning: 21.11.22

Book of the Week: The night before my birthday.

I've hidden present pictures around the nursery. How many can you find? Record the number on your sheet.

Can you make a cake in the sand tray? What will you decorate it with?

Can you subitise the spots on the board and place on the correct numbered present?

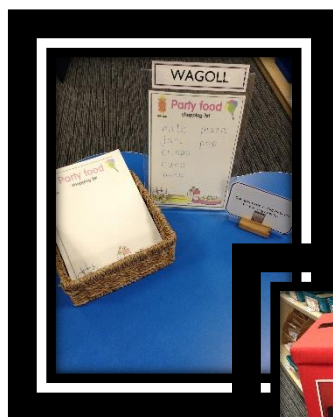

This week's challenges!

Can you wrap a present for a friend and write your name label to attach to it?

Practice writing your letter sounds at our phonics table. Can you remember the rhyme?

Can you write a shopping list of what you will need for our party? Post it in our new post box!

Can you make marks in the tray of flour? Don't forget 'crocodile' fingers!

Can you decorate the bunting for our party and hole punch some holes?
