

Book of the Week: Walking through the Jungle.

Can you paint a jungle animal? Which one is your favourite?

Can you make a tiger face? Practice your scissor skills to give him some stripes!

Can you practice the skills of pressing, rolling, pinching & squeezing to create different parts of the jungle animals?

This week's challenges!

Can you count and sort the jungle animals?
Can you order the numbered animals?

Can you retell the story of 'Walking through the Jungle'?

Can you cut out the jungle animals to make yourself a mask?

Practice your scissor skills again by snipping the green paper to collage your crocodile.
