Everyone's proud of their children, but there are ways to be proud and sensible at the same time.

Protect your child by not revealing information that is personal to their school, home or the area they live in.

If you are posting #backtoschool pictures of your child, stay safe.

Do not mention their name or the school's name.

Keep the logo of the school hidden.

Check your privacy settings to protect your child.

Don't post photos of other people's children.

OR

Posting a photo of your child returning or starting school may not be too revealing if you've ensured their safety.

However, information you put in the caption may be more harmful than you know.
